

Things to consider while making bridal shower invitations

One cannot deny the importance of bridal shower invitations for organizing that perfect bridal shower. Apart from being articulate, nowadays the bridal showers invitations have to be trendy and attractive looking too. Needless to say we have come a long way since the middle ages when it was the town criers that used to announce invitation to parties. In the earlier times, books were written on etiquette which included instructions on how to write invitations. These days there is no thumb rule as such that is applicable to bridal shower invitations. Unlike wedding invitations, the bridal shower invitations do not have to be engraved or carry religious or formal messages. One can use this liberty to reflect the personality of the bride in the bridal shower invitations.

Despite all the flexibility, bridal shower invitations have to include certain rudimentary details. These include the name of the bride, date, venue, time and the RSVP name and the number. The theme of the shower also should be mentioned in the invitation in case there is one. The designing of the bridal shower invitations itself may reflect the theme. In case the shower is a surprise, it is important to mention it in the bridal shower invitations along with the exact time at which the bride is expected to arrive at the venue. The place at which the bride is registered is also an important information that may be included in the bridal shower invitations. At times, it might even be useful to include the directions to the venue of the shower in the bridal shower invitations. If the bride and the groom wish to give donations in lieu of gifts, that must also find mention in the bridal shower invitations.

While considering options for printing, home printers and printing shops are quite viable. Purchasing ready made invitations is generally an easier alternative. Depending on your requirements, they can also be custom made according to your own design. While making your choice keep in mind the number of invitees and the budgetary constraints. Bridal shower invitations are also available over the internet for your convenience.

The content of the bridal shower invitations might depend on the theme of the shower. It is also important to keep in mind the level of formality of the event while choosing the wording. Even while designing, it must be borne in mind that invitees get a clue about what to expect when they arrive at the shower. Often bridal shower invitations include poems or rhymes. People also have used excerpts from the wedding vows in the invitations. No matter what style one chooses, it must be ensured that the invitations includes all the vital information as well as the dressing requirements, theme for gifts or even direction to the venue.
